Call For Papers

Pakistan Navy War College (PNWC) welcomes the submission of manuscripts for its annual publication of 'The Beacon Journal.' It is a peer-reviewed HEC recognized journal in the 'Y category' focusing on contemporary issues of geopolitics, national security, military & maritime strategy, maritime security, warfare, military & emerging technologies, Blue Economy and climate change.

The paper(s) should be in-depth research based academic investigation primarily influencing the policy-making process. The research papers must adhere to the following guidelines:

1.   The research paper(s) length should be 5000-6000 words including footnotes.
2.   The book review(s) length should be 1000-2000 including footnotes. The Beacon Journal prefers reviews of recently published books.
3.   Each paper must include an abstract of not more than 250 words with 5-7 keywords. The first page of manuscript should contain paper's title, author(s) name(s) including qualifications, institutional affiliations and email address(es). These details are to be provided in the first footnote of the paper.
4.   All papers must be original containing unpublished research work. While submitting manuscripts, the author(s) must sign the originality certificate(s) and disclosure statement.
5.   The files must be in MS Word Format.
6.   UK English spellings should be used.
7.   The paper must not exceed 18% similarity index.
8.   References must be in footnotes as per Chicago manual 17th edition. For further guidance, please follow the link:
